

Tareekh: screen guide

Every screen explained, with arrows

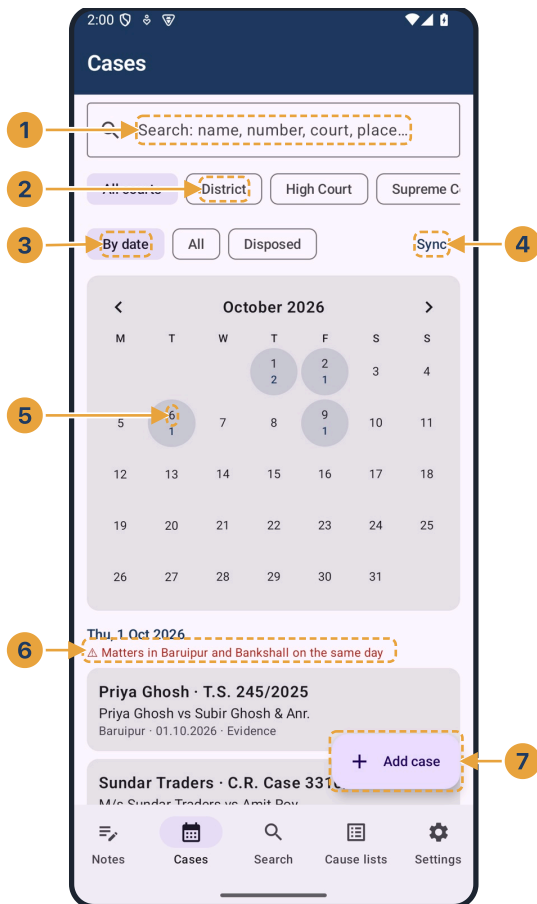

Every screen of Tareekh, as it looks on an Android phone. The numbered arrows point at each part of the screen; the list beside each picture explains it. The cases shown are made-up examples.

1 · Notes: your day at a glance

The first tab. It opens every time you start Tareekh.

- 1 Today / Tomorrow
 How many matters are fixed today and tomorrow. Tap to open them in Cases.
- 2 Checks due
 Hearings that have happened and whose next date is not yet known. Each needs a quick check on eCourts.
- 3 Fees due
 Clients with a hearing in the next 3 days whose fee is not marked paid (only cases with a phone number).
- 4 Check
 Opens eCourts for that case with everything filled in; you type the CAPTCHA, the new date is saved.
- 5 WhatsApp (fees)
 Opens the client's WhatsApp with a polite fee reminder already typed.
- 6 Notes
 Your own notes. A note can have a reminder (alarm) and can be linked to a case. Tick it when done.
- 7 New note
 Write a note, set a reminder date and time, or link it to a case.

2 · Cases: every matter, by date

All your cases, with a month calendar of hearings.

1 Search

Type any part of a name, number, court or place to find a case.

2 Court filter

Show all courts, or only District, High Court or Supreme Court cases.

3 By date / All / Disposed

By date shows the calendar and upcoming hearings; All lists everything; Disposed shows closed cases.

4 Sync

Writes every hearing into your phone's Google Calendar (with alerts 2 days before and at 8 am).

5 Calendar

Each day shows how many matters are fixed. Tap a day to see only its cases and your other calendar entries.

6 Clash warning

Warns when you have matters in two different court towns on the same day.

7 Add case

Add a case by hand, or upload a summons, order or screenshot for Tareekh to read.

3 · A case

Tap any case to open it. Everything about the matter is on this one page.

1 Next date

The next hearing date, its purpose and the case stage.

2 Check on eCourts

Opens the court's page filled in (CNR, or case type, number and year). Type the CAPTCHA; the next date, hearings and orders are saved.

3 Enter date

Manual override: type the next date yourself if eCourts is down or late. The calendar is updated too.

4 Save contact as

The name to save your client under in your phone: name first, then the case number. Tap to copy.

5 WhatsApp reminder to client

Opens the client's WhatsApp with the hearing reminder typed (case, court, date). You tap Send.

6 Call / WhatsApp / Save

Call the client, message them, or save them as a phone contact in one tap.

7 Fee paid

Mark the fee as paid so no fee reminder is sent for this date.

8 Orders

Court orders downloaded from eCourts, newest first. Tap to open; the share icon sends it on WhatsApp.

4 · Checking a case on eCourts (example)

What you see after tapping Check on eCourts and typing the CAPTCHA. (Illustration made with a sample page: on the real court site the layout is the court's own.)

The screenshot shows a mobile app interface for checking a case. It includes a title bar, a 'Case Details' section with various case information, an 'Interim Orders' table, a case summary at the bottom, and a confirmation message. Numbered callouts point to specific elements: 1 points to the 'Next Hearing Date' field, 2 points to the 'Interim Orders' section header, 3 points to the 'Next date' and 'Saved' status messages, and 4 points to the 'Open the case in Tareekh' button.

Open the case in Tareekh

1 Next date read from the court

Tareekh reads the next hearing date, stage, judge, parties and hearing history from the page.

2 Orders on the page

Every order listed on the court's page is downloaded into the case's folder:

Download/Tareekh/Orders/<client> <case>.

3 Saved automatically

For a case already in your list, the new date and new orders are saved by themselves. You are told how many orders were saved.

4 Open the case in Tareekh

Jump back to the case page. A new case shows 'Save to My Cases (with orders)' here instead.

The screenshot shows a mobile app interface for creating a new case. It features a 'Found in the document' section with a checklist, a 'Show document text' button, and various input fields for case details. Four numbered orange circles with arrows point to specific elements: 1 points to the 'Found in the document' header, 2 points to the 'Case number' field, 3 points to the 'Show document text' button, and 4 points to the 'Type' dropdown menu.

5 · Adding a case from a document

Upload (or share to Tareekh) a summons, order, notice or eCourts screenshot; PDFs up to 3 pages are read too.

1 Found in the document

What Tareekh read: ✓ means found, – means not found. Check it before saving.

2 Case details

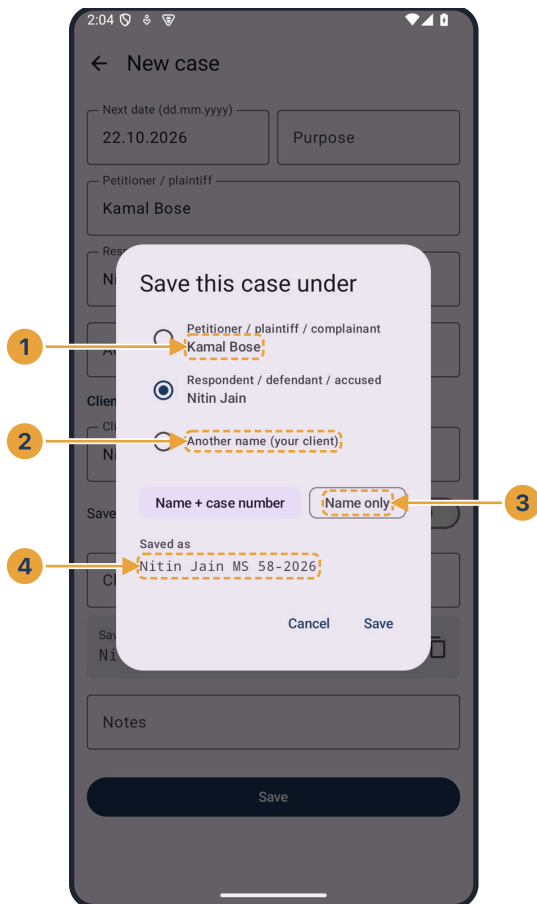

Case type, number, year, court, hearing date and both parties are filled in for you.

3 Show document text

See (and copy) exactly what the phone read, useful if something was read wrongly.

4 Edit anything

Every field can be corrected by hand before you save.

6 · Whose name to save the case under

Asked every time you save a new case.

1

Petitioner / respondent

Choose the party who is your client; the full name is used.

2

Another name

Or type your client's name, e.g. a company contact.

3

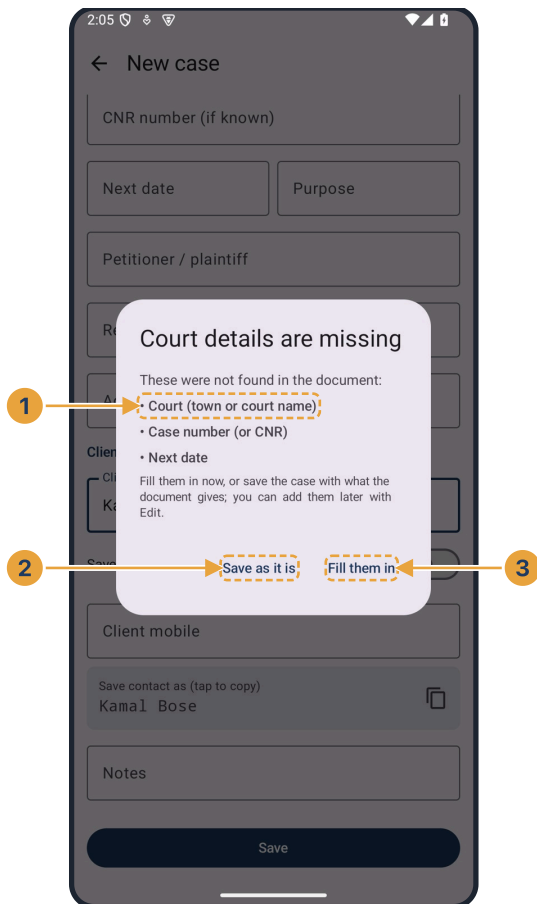

Name + number / Name only

Save as 'Name TYPE NO-YEAR' (the name always first) or just the name.

4

Saved as

Preview of the name used for the case, the contact and the orders folder.

7 · When court details are missing

If the document did not give an important detail, Tareekh says so before saving.

1 What is missing

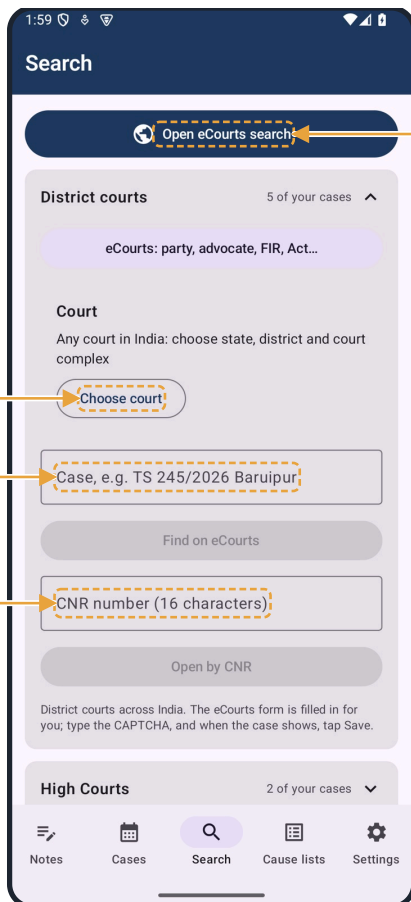

Court, case number or CNR, case type, year, next date or parties: whatever could not be found.

2 Save as it is

Save with what the document gave. You can add the rest later with Edit.

3 Fill them in

Go back to the form and type the missing details now.

8 · Search: district courts

Court-wise search. The kind of court with most of your cases opens first.

1

Open eCourts search

The full eCourts search page (party, advocate, FIR, Act and more).

2

Choose court

Any court in India: state, district and court complex, straight from eCourts' own lists. Recent courts are remembered.

3

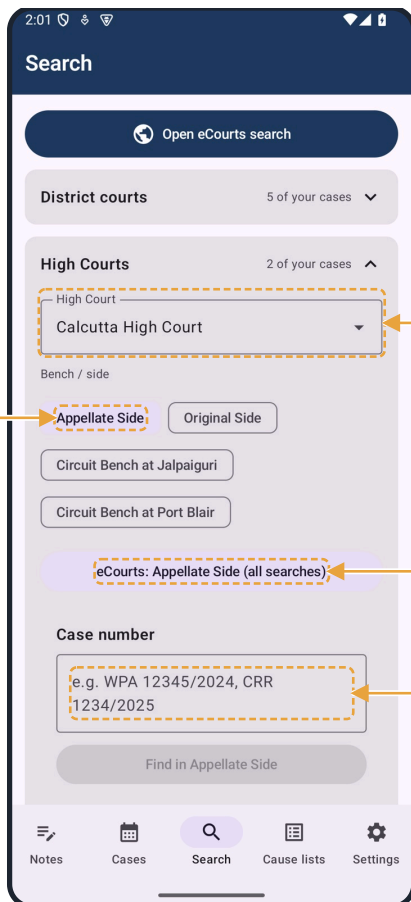

Find a case

Type the case as you would write it; Tareekh fills the eCourts form and you type the CAPTCHA.

4

Open by CNR

The quickest search: the 16-character CNR number.

9 · Search: High Courts

All 25 High Courts and their 44 benches, opened on their own eCourts pages.

1

High Court

Choose the High Court; your last choice is remembered.

2

Bench / side

Appellate Side, Original Side, circuit benches: every bench has its own page.

3

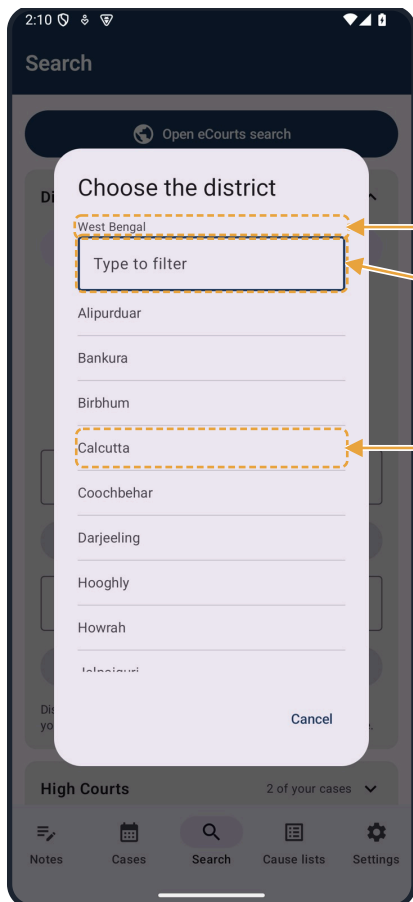

All searches

That bench's full eCourts menu (case number, party, advocate, orders, cause list).

4

Case number

WPA, CRR, FMA...: the case type, number and year are filled in; you type the CAPTCHA.

10 · Choosing any court in India

State > district > court complex, with a filter box.

1

Where you are

The state already chosen; next the district, then the court complex.

2

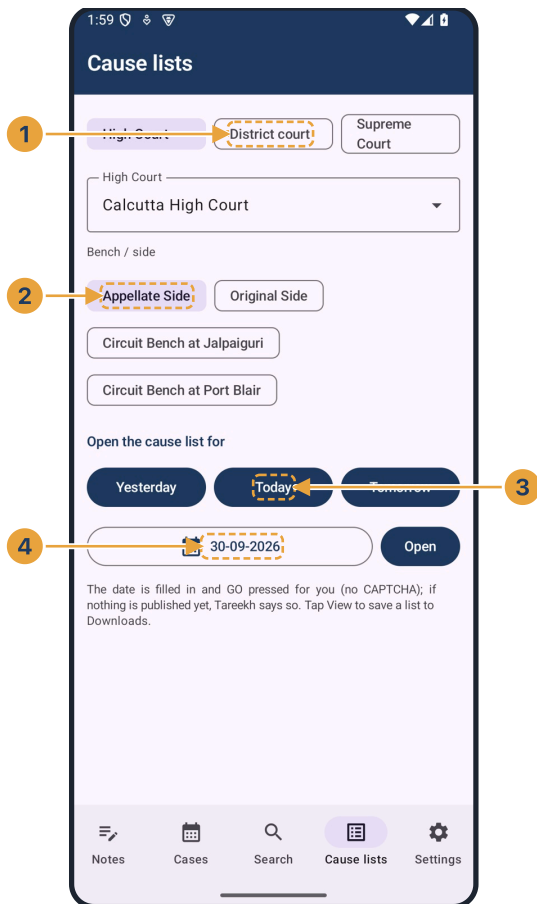

Type to filter

Type a few letters to find a district or court quickly.

3

Lists from eCourts

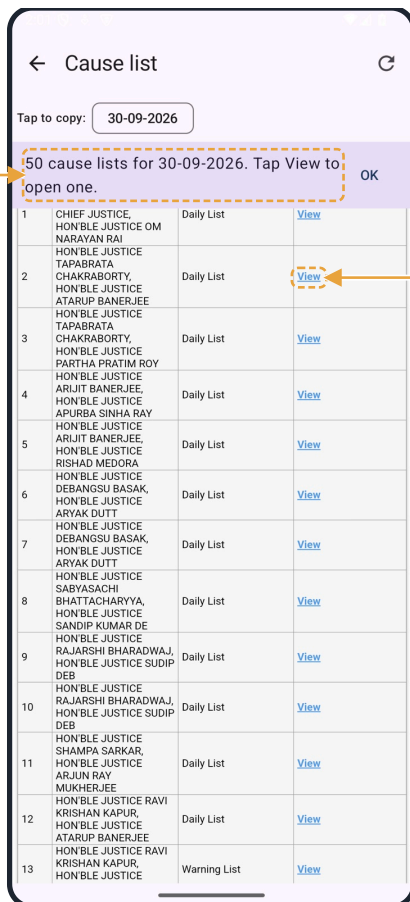

The lists are read live from eCourts, so every court in India is there.

11 · Cause lists

Today's (or any day's) cause list for a High Court bench, a district court or the Supreme Court.

- 1 Court
High Court, District court or Supreme Court.
- 2 Bench
For High Courts, choose the bench or side.
- 3 Yesterday / Today / Tomorrow
One tap opens the list for that day.
- 4 Any date
Pick a date from the calendar, then Open.

12 · A High Court cause list

High Court lists open by themselves (no CAPTCHA).

1

What was found

How many lists are published for the date, or 'not published yet'.

2

View

Downloads the bench's list as a PDF into Download/Tareekh/Cause lists and opens it.

13 · WhatsApp reminder without a number

If no phone number is saved for the case.

1

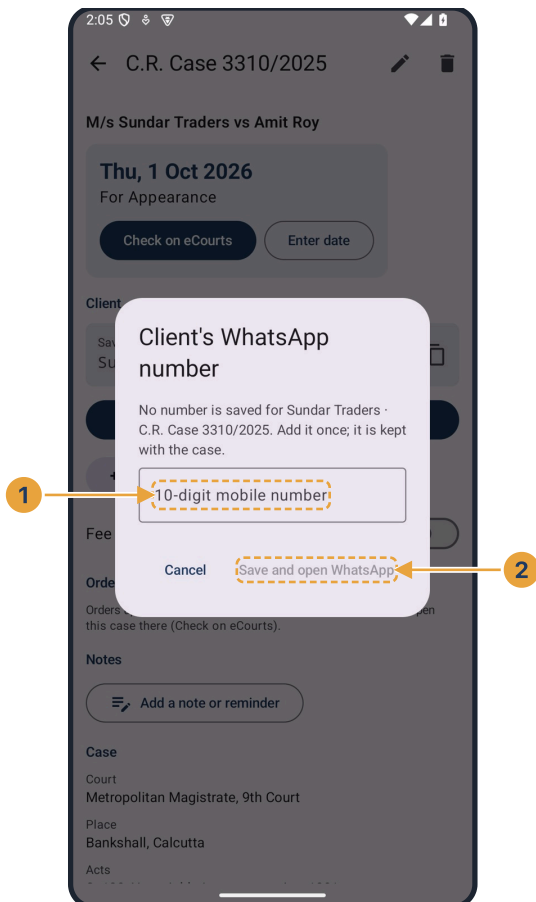

Client's number

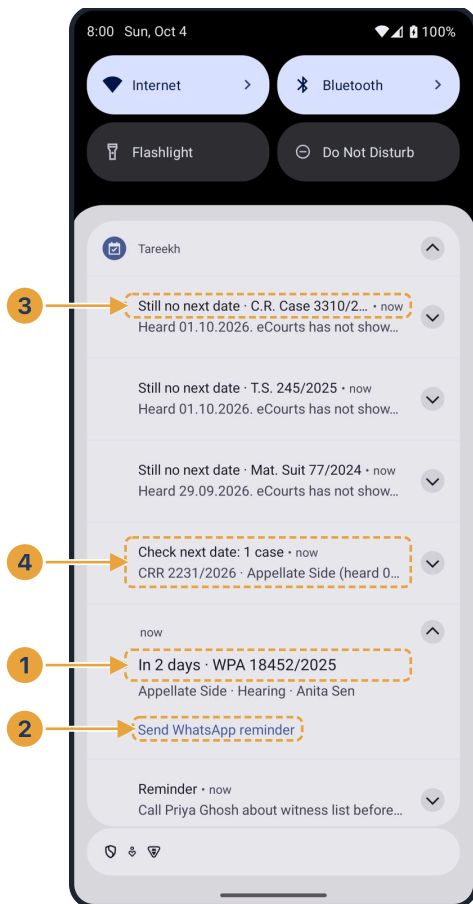

Type it once: it is saved with the case.

2

Save and open WhatsApp

Saves the number and opens WhatsApp with the reminder typed; you tap Send.

14 · Reminders on your phone

Tareekh reminds you even when the app is closed.

1

2 days before

Each hearing two days ahead, with the court, purpose and client.

2

Send WhatsApp reminder

Opens the client's WhatsApp with the reminder typed (or asks for the number first).

3

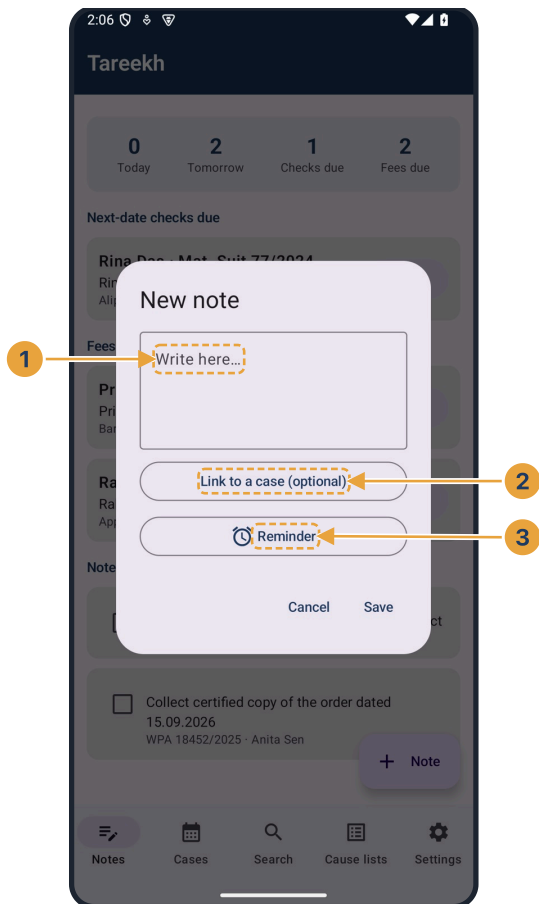

Still no next date

If eCourts still shows no new date 3 days after a hearing, check or enter it.

4

6:30 pm check

Hearings of the day: tap to check each on eCourts with one CAPTCHA.

15 · A note with a reminder

From the Notes tab or from any case.

1

Note

Anything you need to remember.

2

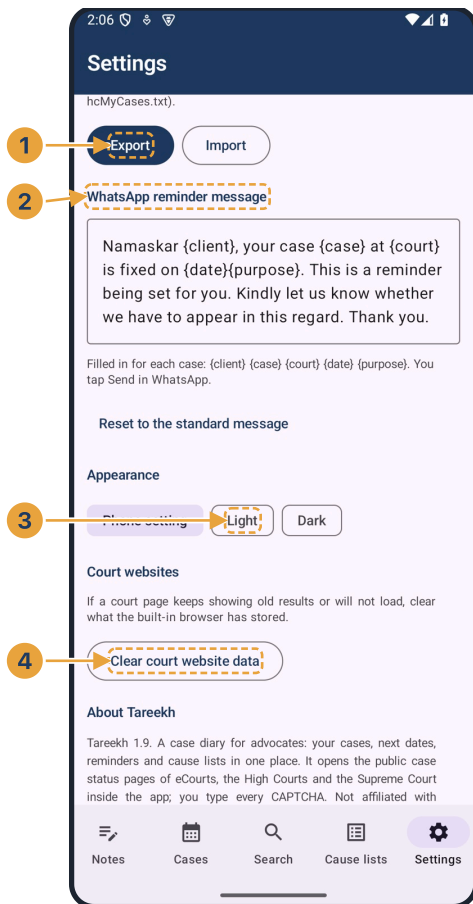

Link to a case

The note then also shows on that case's page.

3

Reminder

Pick a date and time; a notification comes then (it opens the case).

16 · Settings

Backup, your WhatsApp wording and the look of the app.

1

Export / Import

Save all cases and notes to a backup file (keep it in Google Drive); Import also reads the eCourts app's My Cases export.

2

WhatsApp reminder message

Your own wording; {client} {case} {court} {date} {purpose} are filled in for each case.

3

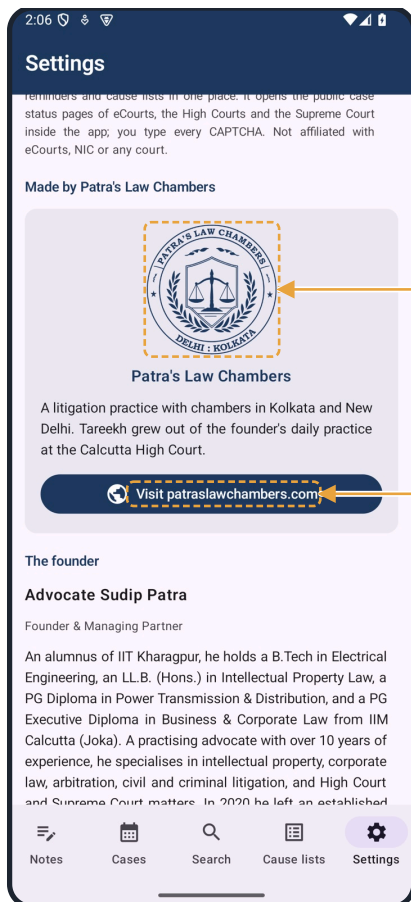

Appearance

Phone setting, Light or Dark.

4

Court websites

If a court page keeps showing old results, clear what the built-in browser stored.
